

Webinar with Real Deals

Moderator: Nicholas Neveling (Real Deals)

Speakers: Hugh Stacey (IQ-EQ), Barnaby Piggott (Holland Mountain), Neil Mehta (DWS), Rajen Shah (17 Capital), Justin Partington (IQ-EQ)

Date: 28 April

Time: 3pm UK time

Topic: The growing importance of technology in the current private equity landscape

SPEAKERS' BIO DATA

Justin Partington, Head of Funds, IQ-EQ

Justin is responsible for leading IQ-EQ's global offering for alternative asset managers, encompassing central administration, accounting, AIFM and depositary services. Following his degree in commerce from Queen's University Canada, he trained as an accountant with Deloitte. Justin has international experience in the alternative fund services sector, including senior postings in Canada, the UK, the Cayman Islands and Guernsey. He is an expert in the operation, delivery and marketing of fund and investment administration in the alternative asset space. Through his extensive experience serving on operating company and fund boards, he has gained a unique know-how in serving his clients and anticipating their needs.

Neel Mehta, Chief Financial Officer, Private Equity, DWS

Neel Mehta is the Chief Financial Officer, Private Equity at DWS, and leads the finance and accounting function, working alongside the senior investment team to drive growth and shaping financial best practice. He joined DWS in 2018 from Mayfair Equity Partners, where he built and managed the accounting and finance function, including fund structuring and regulatory planning. Prior to this he was the Finance Manager at Keyhaven Capital Partners where he transformed the entire back office operations, systems and processes. Neel has over 12 years of experience in private equity and joined the business with a thorough understanding of the private equity life cycle, including fundraising and limited partner due diligence. He is a member of the BVCA Regulatory Committee, a Fellow of the Association of Chartered Certified Accountants and holds a BA (Hons) in International Accounting and Finance.

Rajen Shah, Finance Director, 17 Capital

Rajen joined 17Capital in 2012 from Bowmark Capital and was previously at Humberts Group plc. Rajen studied at Queen Mary University of London and Brunel University.

Barnaby Piggott, CEO, Holland Mountain

Barnaby is a highly accomplished private equity project specialist with more than 15 years of experience working with private equity fund managers, administrators and investors throughout Europe and the US. He has completed over 50 client engagements with leading industry names, including Collier Capital, Bridgepoint, UBS (now MUFG), IK Partners and Octopus Investments.

Barnaby began his career in private equity with AnalytX (now eFront) before spending six years with a boutique London-based private equity consultancy. He founded Holland Mountain in 2009. Barnaby is a CFA® Charterholder, a CIPM® Certificant and a PRINCE2® Registered Practitioner.

Hugh Stacey, Executive Director – Investor Solutions, IQ-EQ

Hugh Stacey has joined IQ-EQ as the Executive Director of IQ-EQ Investor Solutions, which is a division dedicated to servicing the private markets portfolios of institutional investors with the latest technological platforms. IQ-EQ Investor Solutions is a technological product which aims to meet the needs of investment managers and their investors, delivering real time data reporting and data analysis on their investment portfolio.

Having served five years in the British Army leaving as Captain in 2007, Hugh spent seven years at IQ-EQ initially based in the London offices. Here he assisted in building the Sales team for EMEA. Hugh then moved to Singapore as Managing Director of Asia where he built the firm's operations in the region.

Back in 2013, Hugh joined an alternative investment manager based in Singapore, Vulpes Investment Management, as Managing Director. During his time, he was responsible for all commercial activities as well as product development and corporate strategy. He graduated from the University of Leeds.

Moderator: Nicholas Neveling, Real Deals