

Singapore as a Family Office Destination

Introduction

Unlocking the opportunities for your family office

Singapore benefits from a stable political environment with strong pro-business policies, which includes favourable tax rates and other related business incentives. This along with Singapore's excellent infrastructure, high quality health care, education and housing makes Singapore one of the most desired locations in the world for establishing a family office.

IQ-EQ is a trusted local partner, offering a holistic suite of services to family offices, including global structuring, risk management reporting, compliance and regulatory reporting.

Supporting your family offices' evolution

Our knowledge and experience provide your investors with accurate and timely financial reporting, allowing you to focus on growing your investment management business.

Design your family office

We work closely with you and your advisors to determine how best to structure both your family wealth, and the family office.

Build your family office

We establish the required framework quickly and efficiently to support the governance, economic substance level, and efficacy of your family office.

Execute your plan

We collaborate with in-house and external specialist advisors. This can include working in close collaboration with banks, investment managers, luxury asset specialists, insurers, specialist asset administration services and private funds reporting functions.

Guard and facilitate

Our experienced professionals deliver the highest standards of wealth governance and oversight, providing wealth stewardship.

We facilitate smooth administration across all services from company secretary, CFO, trustees, property and lifestyle concierge. In addition, we can leverage our full continuum of professional support through regulatory compliance, technology and reporting.
